

Terms and Conditions

My normal T&Cs still all apply. Additional terms are below.

Terms and Conditions during COVID-19:

My usual T&Cs may need to be revised during this time. An example would be for your late cancellation policy due to COVID-19. This could relate to the following situations:

- If you or anyone in your household becomes unwell and has symptoms
- If you believe you may have been in contact with someone showing symptoms

Cancellations during Covid.

Donna will contact you before each lesson to check:

- If you or anyone in your household has become unwell or has symptoms of COVID
- If you or anyone in your household has been tested in the last week
- If you believe you may have been in contact with someone showing symptoms
- If you or anyone in your household have become unwell or are showing symptoms

If so please inform Donna, your lesson will be rescheduled to a later date at no cost.

If Donna has any of the above she will inform you and reschedule your lesson.

Should you or Donna show symptoms during the lesson, the lesson will be terminated at no cost.